Crawford Secures Office Space in Slave Lake, Alberta to Respond to Wildfires

TORONTO (May 19, 2011) – Crawford & Company (Canada) Inc. has now secured a temporary office location in Slave Lake, Alberta. This will accommodate the adjusters deployed to the area to assist with the damage and devastation being caused by the wildfires.

"Once we receive safety clearance we will move our adjusters into the temporary office location" said chief executive officer, John Sharoun, "and will maintain possession of this site for as long as necessary."

He added, "We continue to monitor the situation and deploy adjusters to the area as required. We are also responding quickly to the many claims we have already received."
